

TEMPLE BETH SHOLOM'S PARENTAL CONSENT:

I have read and agree to the following terms regarding my child's participation in the Temple Beth Sholom's Religious School and Youth Programs.

- In consideration of Temple Beth Sholom's acceptance of my/our child as a participant in youth activities, I/we both individually and as the legal guardian(s) of my/our child hereby waive any and all claims against Temple Beth Sholom, its agents and its employees, that may arise out of any injury, loss or damage suffered by my/our child during the activity as a result of his/her leaving the group without authorization or failing to follow any of the Religious School and Youth policies.
- I understand that students must remain on Temple grounds from the time they arrive through their scheduled academic program unless they are part of an authorized, chaperoned activity. I give my permission for my child to leave the grounds to participate in educational programs, under the supervision of the program staff.
- I/we hereby authorize Temple Beth Sholom and its employees and agents to act as my/our agent to consent to or arrange any emergency medical treatment that may be deemed necessary by an attending physician with respect to any illness or injury suffered by my/our child on said activity.
- I understand that the addresses, phone numbers and email information of students may be distributed to other students' families at the school's discretion unless otherwise notified in writing by parents.
- I/we also understand that I/we consent to the photographing, reproduction, use, and retention of photographs, film, and/or video of my/our child(ren) taken by and/or for Temple Beth Sholom for use in education, publicity, and promotional activities in any and all publications and other media without limitation or reservation.
